Sponsorship Opportunities

This once-a-year gathering offers executive level content for aerospace leaders. Join 90+ middle and upper managers from Pacific Northwest OEMs, primes, and sub-contractors as they gain knowledge on market intelligence, trends, and analytics needed to navigate the changing landscape of the defense marketplace. By sponsoring the Northwest Aerospace Defense Symposium, your organization will gain visibility, educate, and build relationships with this targeted audience, as well as support the region's aerospace cluster.
