

Here for the Holidays

In an effort to show appreciation to the members of the 62d Medical Squadron (MDS), I'm requesting your assistance in funding a holiday event to say 'thank you' to McChord's Active Duty Medics.

Your support will allow me and the 62d MDS Booster Club to afford a venue, entertainment, and catering for our Airmen and their spouses who are unable to travel home for the holidays.

The McChord Medical Clinic is a small medical team of 57 Airmen who work tirelessly to provide medical care and supplemental support to more than 3700 Active Duty, Guard, and Reservists.

I'm SSgt Katherine Cummins and I'm very proud to say my squadron is full of the best medics the Air Force has to offer! From combat controllers and security forces to pilots and aircraft maintainers; we take care of all our Airmen so they can 'fly, fight, and win'.
